How we work

We understand your needs

Tell us the location and service you need. We discuss the site type, frequency and preferred schedule.

We define the tasks

We discuss surfaces, access and specific requirements. If needed, we arrange a site survey.

We prepare a quote

We provide a quote tailored to the agreed tasks and frequency. We clarify scope and conditions before starting.

We deliver and review

We follow the agreed task list, monitor quality through ongoing personal checks and discuss your feedback.

Behind our work

Our team has worked together for over 10 years. We bring experience from many different cleaning tasks to your site.

We offer evening and weekend cleaning. Timing and access are agreed in advance to suit your operations.

Our service area

All our services are available throughout Central-Western and North-Western Hungary. More distant locations can be arranged individually.

No minimum area, headcount or contract value. Tasks, schedule and price are agreed individually.
